Energy Efficiency, Technology and Funding Options

Generate cost savings and immediate cash flow with energy efficiency and technology solutions integrated with innovative financing and technology as a service package.

Every organization can benefit from clean, efficient and flexible energy management solutions to address their sustainability and efficiency, renewable energy and operational efficiency goals. With smart energy-saving technologies and targeted equipment upgrades, integrated with innovative finance options, your organization can realize the benefits of immediate energy cost savings without any required capital deployment or up-front funding requirements.

OUR APPROACH

- Bundle energy data management, energy supply and efficiency and technology options across financed solutions
- Manage the deployment of these financed energy management solutions to transfer project execution risk
- Facilitate contracted, off-balance-sheet services solutions that trade our customer’s capital expense (CAPEX) for operating expense (OPEX)

AEP Energy’s technology and financing solutions enable immediate savings, giving our customers greater control over energy usage and spend to decarbonize and save money. Our approach integrates the financed energy efficiency and technology deployment outcomes into a unified energy supply and load management solution.
